SATURDAY

African-American Music Appreciation Month

- Celebrate the deep and vital contributions of African American musicians and music traditions with a month-long multimedia display. Get started with a topical booklist.

LGBTQ+ Pride Month

- Check out GLBT Book Month resources and ideas.
- Family program idea: Celebrate Pride Month with an inclusive Drag Queen story hour or find one near you that the library can promote.

Summer Library Program

- Pick two regular programs (e.g. a book club or a family program) to “music-fy” in celebration of Libraries Rock! this summer.

1

National Say Something Nice Day
Offer a passive Kindness Rocks activity for all ages to complete.

2

Libraries Rock! Use Spotify to crowdfund a “sounds of summer” song playlist to share in the library or online.

3

On this day in 1888, the baseball poem “Casey at the Bat” was printed for the first time in the San Francisco Examiner.

4

National Garden Week (June 3 – 9)
Work with a local master gardening group to host an unusual gardening program, such as vertical gardening, front yard gardening, or container gardening.

5

Today is World Environment Day. Share a list of new nature/environmental books, or post a resource like EcoLit Books, which reviews new environmental writing.

6

National Drive-In Movie Day
Celebrate with a special Drive-In Family Movie Night. Decorate cardboard cars to sit in and serve popcorn and cold beverages.

7

Poet and civil rights activist Nikki Giovanni was born on this day in 1943. Link to her page on Poets.org to share her work.

8

Movie release: Ocean’s Eight, a spin-off of the heist movie Ocean’s Eleven with an all-female crew, comes out today.

9

In honor of Great Outdoors Month, try a Walk and Talk Book Discussion. Do as a one-off with a regular book group, or take the opportunity to kick off a new series.

10

Judy Garland was born on this day in 1922. Highlight one or more of her films on social media today.

11

June is Audiobook Month. Highlight your library’s collection with a print or online book list. Invite your patrons to share their recommendations and favorites.

12

Book release: In Who Is Vera Kelly? by Rosalie Knecht, a witty young woman in Greenwich Village in the 1960s is recruited to work for the CIA.

13

Irish poet William Butler Yeats was born on this day in 1865. Share his biography and selected works from Poets.org.

14

World Blood Donor Day
Host a blood drive at your library, or share information about an upcoming drive on social media.

15

Nature Photography Day
Share these tips with your patrons on how to improve their nature photography.

16

On this day in 1960, Alfred Hitchcock’s Psycho premiered. Highlight this and other classic Hitchcock films with a display.

17

Kick off National Craft Spirits Week by inviting a local or regional distiller to present on the making of craft spirits.

18

International Sushi Day
Work with a Japanese restaurant to host a hands-on sushi demo and workshop for your community.

19

Highlight a local Juneteenth celebration in or near your community on social media.

20

Ground control to Major Tom! On this day in 1969, David Bowie recorded “Space Oddity.” International Space Station commander Chris Hadfield sang a version of the song in a viral YouTube video in May 2013.

21

International Yoga Day
Host a yoga workshop for adults (or families!) in your community, and highlight how-to books and DVDs with a display.

22

Science fiction writer and activist Octavia Butler was born on this day in 1947. Highlight her literary and social justice work with a display and booklist.

23

Happy Typewriter Day! Set up a walk-up typing station with a vintage typewriter and invite library patrons to reacquaint themselves with this retro technology.

24

Boxer Jack Dempsey, known as the “Manassa Mauler,” was born on this day in 1895.

25

On this day in 1950, the Korean War began. Link to the Veterans History Project, part of the Library of Congress, to point patrons to personal stories of the Korean War.

26

Get outside with a community-wide sidewalk chalk event. Get seriously inspired by Chalk Lit at Broward County Main Library.

27

Author and activist Helen Keller was born on this day in 1880. Learn about Helen Keller International, the organization she founded to prevent blindness and reduce malnutrition worldwide.

28

On this day in 1969, the clientele of the Stonewall Inn, a gay bar in New York City, demonstrated after police raided the establishment. The Stonewall Uprising was considered by many to be the start of the gay rights movement.

29

On this day in 1956, President Eisenhower signed a bill providing $26 billion for highway construction, paving the way for the Interstate Highway System.

30

Meteor Watch Day is today. Share a night sky app on social media.
