

2019

SUNDAY

MONDAY

TUESDAY

Bold pink text indicates a live link. Click on the links to discover more information. For more programming ideas, visit ideas.demco.com/category/blog/.

January is celebrated as both National Slow Cooking Month and National Soup Month — so combine them into one great series of posts all week featuring recipes from your collection!

It's National Blood Donor Month, so clear a display case or bulletin board and invite your local Red Cross or other blood bank to put up a display.

1

Public Domain Day: This is a momentous day, because today older materials once again begin entering the public domain with the expiration of the Copyright Term Extension Act.

6

Cowboy film legend Tom Mix was born on this day in 1880. Highlight Westerns in print and film.

7

Kenny Loggins was born on this day in 1948. Inspire nostalgia by featuring his music for children and adults, along with the numerous films featuring his songs.

8

National Argyle Day: You'll want to feature some fancy print today in honor of this Scottish tartan design. Maybe challenge staff to a sweater/sock style contest?

13

On this day in 1968, Johnny Cash performed live and recorded an album at Folsom State Prison. Feature your outlaw country music collection.

14

On this day in 1954, Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio wed. Feature a selection of sports-themed romance books.

15

A Thomas Nast political cartoon, the first to depict Democrats as donkeys, debuted on this day in 1870. Invite the local historical society to create a display of political memorabilia.

20

On this day in 1945, Franklin D. Roosevelt was sworn in for his fourth term as president of the US. This was later prevented from happening again by the Twenty-second Amendment to the US Constitution in 1947.

21

On National Hugging Day, share the benefits of hugging.

22

President Harry Truman created the Central Intelligence Group on this date in 1946. Feature your spy novels and films today.

27

International Holocaust Remembrance Day: The United Nations designated this day on the anniversary of the 1945 liberation of the Auschwitz-Birkenau camp. Distribute a booklist of amazing materials that promote understanding.

28

Data Privacy Day: Raise awareness and promote best practices by scattering tips around the library (near the computers) and on your social media.

29

Edgar Allan Poe's poem "Raven" was first published on this day in 1845. Share James Earl Jones' reading of the classic poem.

JANUARY

Adult Engagement Calendar

WEDNESDAY

2

National Personal Trainer Awareness Day:

Invite a personal trainer to talk about the job's tasks and training and offer tips on sticking to those exercise-related resolutions.

THURSDAY

3

J.R.R. Tolkien was born on this day in 1892. Set up a display of high fantasy books and films.

FRIDAY

4

On this day in 1853, Solomon Northup regained his freedom. His memoir, Twelve Years a Slave, is available as a free e-book and was also made into an acclaimed 2013 film.

SATURDAY

5

Actress Diane Keaton was born on this day in 1946. Feature a display of her books and films.

9

The infamous "Storm King" began on this day in 1880, eventually bringing almost six feet of snow to Seattle, WA over a five-day period. Maybe it's time to review the library's weather emergency policy.

10

George Foreman was born on this day in 1949. Pull together a display of materials on boxing, inventing and entrepreneurship.

11

National Human Trafficking Awareness Day:

Screen a documentary with a group discussion afterward. Invite local law enforcement to participate.

12

On this day in 1959, Berry Gordy founded his record company, which became Motown Records. Invite a local musician to give a mini-performance of Motown favorites.

16

Religious Freedom Day:

Highlight the nonfiction 200's section with special signage to celebrate the First Amendment.

17

Popeye made his print comics debut on this day in 1929. A display of books on animation, sailing and spinach recipes would be appropriate.

18

Alan Alexander (A.A.) Milne was born on this day in 1882. Host a book discussion for adults to rediscover the complex psychological depictions in the Hundred Acre Wood.

19

National Popcorn Day:

Hold a popcorn tasting event and share recipes for unique flavored versions.

23

The first inductees into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame were celebrated in New York on this date in 1986. Use your social media to poll patrons on their favorite "classics."

24

More famous today for his eccentricities than for his leadership, Roman emperor Caligula was assassinated on this day in AD 41.

25

Scots poet Robert Burns was born on this day in 1759 – another chance to sing "Auld Lang Syne" before you pack it away for another year!

26

Paul Newman was born on this day in 1925. Celebrate with a festival-style screening of a few of his most notable films.

30

Mahatma Gandhi was assassinated this date in 1948.

"Happiness is when what you think, what you say, and what you do are in harmony." — Gandhi

31

On this day in 2015, Lydia Ko became the youngest golfer in history to be named number one in the world. She was 17.

