1. Ivan was a massive silverback gorilla who lived by himself in a cage at a shopping mall. Use three letters to spell a word that can be used in place of gorilla.
2. Remove the P from the word you wrote in #1 and add one letter to spell a word that tells what the hungry Ivan really liked to do.
3. For entertainment, Ivan had an old television to watch and a swing to play on. Remove the A from the word you wrote in #2 and add two new letters that spell a word that tells what the swing was made from.
4. Ivan, Bob, and Julia were an unlikely group of friends. Keep the T and E from the word you wrote in #3 and add two new letters to spell a word that means the same thing as a group working together for the same goal.
5. Rearrange the letters in the word you wrote in #4 to spell a word that means the opposite of wild. Because Ivan was this, it was not easy for him to be around other gorillas.
