Children's Activity Calendar

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			1 Dia de los muertos (Day of the Dead) Read Funny Bones: Posada and His Day of the Dead Calaveras by Duncan Tonatiuh, and make your own calavera skull masks with these easy directions.	2 National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) Here's a writing challenge unlike any other! Challenge yourself to draft an entire novel in just one month! Resources and support for writers of all ages are available online at NaNoWriMo Young Writers Program .	3 Sandwich Day Read The Adventures of Kung Fu Robot: How to Make a Peanut Butter, Jelly, and Kung Fu Sandwich to celebrate the invention of the sandwich in 1762. This graphic novel by Jason Bays is enhanced with a free smartphone app that will bring the ka-POW to any PB&J!	4 King Tut Day The entry to King Tut's tomb was discovered on this day in 1922. Learn more about the artifacts found inside and what they tell us about this ancient king by watching this biography from FreeSchool.
5 Daylight Saving Time Ends Don't forget to turn your clock back after you read Sleep Like a Tiger by Mary Logue and Pamela Zagarenski!	6 National American Indian Heritage Month Explore the heritage of the first Americans through primary sources, including photographs, art, and historical accounts, all available through the Library of Congress and other institutions.	7 Happy Book Birthday to Maya Lin: Thinking with Her Hands by Susan Goldman Rubin.	8 X-Ray Day Make a cool X-ray craft to celebrate the invention of the X-ray in 1865.	9 Pat Cummings's Birthday Watch children's book illustrator Pat Cummings and author H. Chuku Lee talk about the making of their book Beauty and the Beast on KidLit TV.	10 On this day in history Sesame Street first aired in 1969. Which Sesame Street character best describes you? Find out with this fun quiz .	11 Veteran's Day Visit a memorial or monument with your family or friends today. Your local visitor's center will have information about nearby sites, or you can take a virtual trip to 15 incredible monuments that honor American soldiers.
12 Read aloud Rolling Thunder , a story by Kate Messner and Greg Ruth about the annual Ride for Freedom made to Washington, D.C., each Memorial Day by more than a million veterans to honor the men and women of the U.S. armed forces.	13 World Kindness Day Have kids trace their hands and choose five kind things to do for others today (one for each finger), and then go do them! Create a display so they can remember their kind deeds in the days to come.	14 Happy Book Birthday to Hey Black Child by Useni Eugene Perkins and Bryan Collier.	15 Georgia O'Keeffe's Birthday Create a contour flower painting inspired by some of the modernist painter's best known works.	16 Button Day Use buttons of all sizes, shapes, and colors in one of these cool button crafts from Today's Parent magazine.	17 Homemade Bread Day Get creative by making clever porcupine rolls from scratch with just a couple of easy ingredients.	18 On this day in history Nathaniel Palmer became the first American to discover the mainland of Antarctica in 1820. Watch March of the Penguins , the award-winning documentary about the emperor penguins of the South Pole.
19 National Play Monopoly Day There are hundreds of variations of this widely popular game. Have you ever played and finished a game?	20 Mexico's Revolution Day Today honors the struggle of the Mexican people to overthrow dictator José de la Cruz Porfirio Díaz Mori in 1910. Celebrate their victory with a metal tooling craft for kids.	21 Happy Book Birthday to The Boy and the Whale by Mordicai Gerstein.	22 Jamie Lee Curtis's Birthday Celebrate the author of Today I Feel Silly: And Other Moods That Make My Day by wearing a silly outfit and having some silly fun.	23 Thanksgiving Day Read aloud In November by Cynthia Rylant and Jill Kastner, and consider all of the many things to be thankful for this month.	24 Celebrate Your Unique Talent Day Can you recite the alphabet backwards? Can you walk on your hands? Have you ever taught a caterpillar a trick? No talent is overlooked today!	25 P.D. Eastman's Birthday Celebrate the collected works of the author of Go, Dog. Go! and Are You My Mother? with games and activities .
26 Cake Day You can have or be any kind of cake you'd like today—just don't be Rude Cakes . If Rowboat Watkins's book taught us anything, it's that no one likes a rude cake!	27 Katherine Milhous's Birthday Read aloud The Egg Tree , Milhous's Caldecott Medal-winning picture book.	28 Make Your Own Head Day You read that right! And since two heads are better than one, why not model yourself a new head from clay , paper, or recycled materials?	29 Electronic Greetings Day Have kids practice their writing skills by sending a birthday, miss you, thank you, or "just because" e-card to someone.	30 Mark Twain's Birthday Read The Purlloining of Prince Oleomargarine by Mark Twain and Philip C. Stead, with illustrations by Erin Stead.
